About SLLC

South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture (SLLC) is a Scottish Charity Independent Organisation (SCIO). It has a Board of 14, of whom, eight are independent Trustees (one of whom is appointed Chair), five are Local Elected Members of South Lanarkshire Council, appointed by the Council and one is a Trade Union appointment. Independent Trustees are appointed in the first instance for three years, form the relevant Annual General Meeting (AGM), and with the option to continue for one further three-year period.

SLLC's charitable objectives are to:

- provide, or assist in the provision of facilities for recreation, sport, cultural, social or other leisure time occupation as are beneficial to the community, and in particular in conjunction with the local authority area of South Lanarkshire as defined in the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1994; and
- provide special facilities for persons who by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, poverty or social and economic circumstances may need special facilities.

SLLC currently, employs over 1,100 members of staff and has an operating budget of around £40 million circa per annum, delivering services in five main areas:

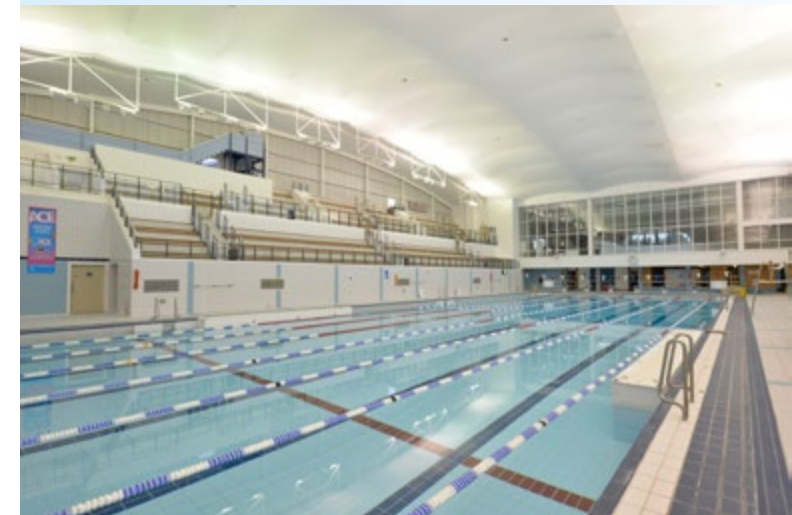

- Sport and Physical Activity (incorporating Development Services and Active Schools);
- Cultural Services (incorporating Arts Development);
- Libraries Service;
- Outdoor Recreation and Outdoor Learning and Adventure Service;
- Country Parks, Golf and Museum Service.

Share our vision of 'Healthier, happier, more connected lives'

As a leisure and cultural SCIO, we are seeking new Trustees to help us with our mission of improving health and wellbeing for the people and communities of South Lanarkshire.

South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture has been serving South Lanarkshire since 2002, and our current operations cover a wide remit:

Management of fitness gyms, cultural venues, community halls, libraries, country parks, an outdoor learning and adventure site, an outdoor water sports centre, golf courses, a museum and an ice rink plus a range of outdoor sports pitches, bowling greens, tennis courts and our zoo at Calderglen Park.

This is an outstanding opportunity for someone who has passion for the work of South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture and has a willingness to act as an ambassador for the organisation.

Suitable candidates for this voluntary role will be able to demonstrate strategic leadership in the public, private or third sectors.

We are particularly interested to hear from you if you have specific knowledge or skills in:

- Commercial Business
- Statutory and voluntary public sector services
- HR and Organisational Development
- Legal
- Finance

If you share our vision of 'Healthier, happier, more connected lives' and would like to learn more about becoming a Trustee of South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture, then we would like to hear from you!

To learn more about this unique opportunity, and to find out how to apply, please email Rachel.Cowan2@southlanarkshireleisure.co.uk or call 01698 454374 (during office hours).

Please note, the closing date for applications is 1 May 2026.

Accountable to the Board of Trustees

Location: South Lanarkshire

Main purpose and role of Trustee:

Being a Trustee is a governance role and good governance is fundamental to our effectiveness. Understanding the strategic vision for South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture is key.

Aspects of the role are:

- Share insights and expertise, and bring specialist knowledge and experience
- Support the organisation on strategy and major decision-making to deliver all activities effectively
- Promote values for the whole organisation and demonstrate the values of good governance through behaviour
- Undertake legal obligations and contribute to discussions and decision-making
- Contribute to our public charitable objectives
- Work collaboratively with the other trustees and partners within the organisation
- Undertake learning and development sessions to support you in the role of Trustee
- Attend a minimum of four meetings a year within South Lanarkshire
- Volunteer to participate in sub committees and SLLC events

We ask our Trustees to adhere to the general principles of public life:

- Accountability and stewardship
- Duty
- Honesty
- Integrity
- Leadership
- Objectivity
- Openness
- Respect
- Selflessness
